

2021/2022 Approved Res Life Dates

All air travel must be via Portland International Jetport -- Airport code: PWM

All arriving students MUST e-mail a flight itinerary to Mr. Jake Abbott, Dean of Students and Residential Life jabbott@lincolnacadey.org, no later than July 15th

Opening of School	Arrival Dates	Applies to
ALL STUDENTS:  Including Fall Athletes, New Students, & Returning Students	Thursday, August 12, 2021  Or  Friday, August 13, 2021	All students enrolling in Lincoln Academy for the fall term 2021 MUST arrive on campus on these two dates.  Students are required to arrive with a negative PCR Covid-19 test, administered 72 hours before arrival.  Students will be required to quarantine at the LA dorm for up to 10 days.  On-site Covid-19 testing may shorten the quarantine period.  Proof of Covid-19 Vaccination may shorten quarantine
What happens if I can't arrive on these two days?	- late arrival dates are subject to available space and would likely not be possible until early to mid September	- required quarantine and associated costs will be at the family's cost when arriving outside of the scheduled arrival dates

Please note that the dorms will only be open during the November break.

If a student wishes to stay with a family during the December vacation, Lincoln Academy Residential Life will make every effort to find a host family but it is NOT Lincoln Academy's responsibility to find host families for students wishing to stay in the area when the dorms are closed.

If a student wishes to stay with a host family during vacation, the student's family will be charged a daily fee of $65 per day per student by Lincoln Academy. A vacation homestay stipend will be paid to the vacation host family to defray the cost of food, transportation and entertainment expenses.

Vacation camp and other trips will be offered during the February and April vacations. Host family opportunities will not be offered during these vacations. Resident students wishing to participate will be charged additional fees for these trips. It is important to sign up early for these opportunities.

Traveling on Approved Travel Dates

Lincoln Academy only provides transportation to and from Portland at no cost when students travel on approved travel dates. Transportation is to the Portland International Jetport (PWM) or the Concord Coach Bus Station. Lincoln Academy may provide transportation to or from Boston (BOS) airport for a fee.

Whenever possible, Lincoln Academy will provide transportation for students who are traveling on non-approved travel dates. Transportation on non-approved travel dates incurs a fee. Students and families may also arrange for transportation from Lincoln Academy on the Concord Coach Bus line or with a local taxi. These services are likely to be very expensive. Transportation on non-approved travel dates must be approved by the Director of Resident Life at least 48 hours before the student leaves campus.

Transportation Fee Schedule

- Student transportation to Portland on approved travel dates: NO CHARGE
- Student transportation to Portland on non-approved travel dates: $125 one-way (6 am - 9 pm)
- Student transportation to Portland on non-approved travel dates: $175 one-way (9 pm - 6 am)
- Student transportation to Boston: $350 one-way

Families and students are always urged to plan well ahead. In an emergency, Lincoln Academy will make every effort to accommodate a student's needs. Students and families are expected to provide copies of all travel plans and flight itineraries to the Office of Residence Life at least two weeks prior to travel.
